

A record

I was in Paris of April rainy day.

And I was climbing the stone step of Montparnasse. At that time, I was thinking. But that memory is ambiguous.

Maybe it was like this,

Presence understanding and concepts and thoughts and feelings and interpretation is sudden things, there is no basis without exception.

Then what can I describe by words and concepts? It be just reality. It is "<http://syiveeyh.g2.xrea.com/bluezhyper.m4a>".

Or,

All of Concepts, all of Thoughts, all of Feelings, all of interpretations, all of understanding of Being is sudden things, there is no basis without exception.

If that were so, what could I describe by these words? Of course, it is "<http://syiveeyh.g2.xrea.com/bluezhyper.m4a>".
